

First picture of Jean de Reszke, famous tenor, taken in eight years. May Peterson, American prima donna, inveigled him into consenting to have it made.

Above—Miss Dorothy Hoagland, who will appear as Venus in "The Tradition of Guarding the Flame," a pageant to be given at Erasmus Hall High School, Brooklyn, next Thursday, Friday and Saturday. Fotograms.

Walter Damrosch, who has just resumed his recital lectures on the Ring of the Nibelungen at Aeolian Hall.

Miss Mary Adams Stevens, selected by President and Mrs. Harding to represent the District of Columbia at the Texas Cotton Palace Exposition at Waco.

Pencil and water color portrait of Princess Xenia of Greece, recently married to William B. Leeds, Jr. The artist is N. Woevovsky and the completed work is the wedding gift of the Princess to her husband. Copyright, Kadel & Herbert.

Vivienne Osborne as Frankie, the baby vamp, in William Faversham's "The Silver Fox," at the Maxine Elliott Theatre. Edward Thayer Monroe.

Helene Chadwick, a Goldwyn picture star, who is being featured in a striking film soon to be released.

Irene Fenwick and Lionel Barrymore in "The Claw" at the Broadhurst Theatre.

Hazel Dawn, one of Broadway's favorites, who appears in "The Demi Virgin" Charlotte Fairchild.

Marjorie Rambeau, who has opened the 1921 season with "Daddy's Gone a-Hunting," at the Plymouth. Abbe.

Miss Dorothy Rowden and Miss Kathleen Halladay, "the class babies," at the junior class party at Simmons College. Underwood & Underwood